

21 Days to Breakthrough: Establishing a Beachhead from Awakening to Arising

Starting 5 January 2026 – 21 Days of Prayer & Fasting

Steve Burston

1. My Identity in Christ

"If anyone is in Christ, he is a _____." (2 Corinthians 5:17)

- In Christ I am _____, not rejected.
- I am _____, not forgotten.
- I am a _____ of God, not an orphan.

"You are a _____ people, a _____ priesthood, a holy nation, God's special possession." (1 Peter 2:9)

2. A Spiritual D-Day

- D-Day (6 June _____) was about establishing a _____.
- A beachhead = a _____, a foothold from which further advance can come.
- Our 21 days are a spiritual D-Day:

"Lord, establish a _____ in my life."

3. Three Building Blocks for Breakthrough

1) Remember _____ you are

- I am a _____ in Christ.
- I am _____ and adopted.
- I am _____ and cleansed.

2) Recognise the real _____

“Our struggle is not against _____ and _____...” (Ephesians 6:12)

- The real battle is against:

- _____
- _____
- _____

3) Respond with prayer and _____

“Don’t _____ about anything, but in everything, by _____ and petition, with _____, present your requests to God.” (Philippians 4:6)

- If it’s worth worrying about, it’s worth _____ about.
- Fasting says: “God, I am more _____ for You than for my comfort.”

4. My Commitments for These 21 Days

1. Identity – Daily truth

I will speak at least one _____ about my _____ in Christ every day.

2. Prayer – 7pm priority

As far as I can, I will set aside _____ pm each evening to seek _____ with ours.

3. Read the Psalms 1,31,61,91,121 every day

When and where?

4. Fasting – Real sacrifice

I will fast from food – what is your commitment:

○ _____

in order to seek God more intentionally.

5. My “Beachhead” – Where I Need Breakthrough

During these 21 days, I am especially asking God for breakthrough in:

1. _____

2. _____

“The Lord broke through...”
