ADMINISTRATOR

MANAGER

Dear
(Minister, Treasurer, Trustees, Potential Funders)

Here's FIVE reasons a paid UCAN membership could make a real difference to both your administrator and your church

Membership benefits for the administrator

Find tips and advice from a national network of church administrators and troubleshoot challenges as they arise

Develop the skills and knowledge to support your minister and leadership team effectively

Access a large, growing library of templates, tools and resources, designed specifically for church administration and operations

Take part in a range of training, events and learning opportunities throughout the year, including specialised accredited courses

Connect with a community of peers to share ideas, experience and practical insight from everyday church life

How this can benefit your church

Administrators who are better equipped to navigate their role and make informed decisions with confidence

Release your spiritual leaders to focus on preaching, people, vision and mission

Streamlined administration built on well-established best practice, saving time and reducing duplication

Ensure your administrative staff have access to relevant and ongoing training and CPD, strengthening their skills for the role

Administrators that feel encouraged, supported and not alone in what they do

Invest in your administrator, invest in your church

Carrie Partridge

Parish Administrator & Secretary | Canford
Magna Parish Church

“ I love being part of UCAN. The opportunities it provides are invaluable, from connecting with and learning from fellow church administrators at local group meetings and Tapas training sessions, to attending inspiring, high-quality conferences.

UCAN also gives access to a wealth of resources, saving time and effort by providing tried-and-tested materials rather than having to reinvent the wheel. ”

Dominic Gardner

Operations Manager | St Mary's Frinton

“ Membership has been one of the most quietly transformative decisions I've made in ministry. It has given me a sense of being held, supported, and resourced by a wider family who genuinely understand the pressures and joys of parish life.

If you are unsure about the value of membership, I simply say this: you don't realise how much lighter the load can feel until you're no longer carrying it alone. It doesn't just give you resources, it gives you confidence, clarity and companions for the journey. ”
