CLERGY REFLECTION:

In our Gospel this weekend we celebrate the very foundation of our faith and our spiritual home, as we are reminded of the Lord commissioning Saint Peter to begin building the Church that we live and rely on to this very day.

When visiting Rome, I often find such peace celebrating Compline (Night Prayer) sat in the quiet evening stillness of Saint Peter's Square. After the busyness and the hustle and bustle of the day, those precious moments on an evening provide such a beautiful opportunity to pause and remember that the veil between heaven and earth is so thin. This is true whenever and however we pray. Those quiet moments of offering our day, our heart and our worries to the Lord are enough for us to say 'You are the Christ, the Son of the living God'.
