

PROFILE OF REV. PROF. PAUL FRIMPONG-MANSO

Rev. Prof. Paul Frimpong-Manso is a well-respected global leader with over forty (40) years in Christian ministry and Executive Leadership. He is a Senior Reverend Minister, an Author and a Motivational Speaker. Also, he is the Pentecostal World Fellowship Ambassador.

He was the President of the Ghana Pentecostal and Charismatic Council, the largest Christian body in Ghana, the past Chairman of the Ghana Evangelism Committee and until recently (August 2022) was the General Superintendent of the Assemblies of God, Ghana.

As the immediate past General Superintendent of the Assemblies of God, Ghana he set up the “Vision 3,000” which helped the church to successfully plant 3,000 local Churches within five (5) years. Thus, he was able to mobilize churches strategically and reposition them to be one of the key Christian Organisations in the country. Rev. Frimpong-Manso’s instrumental leadership led to the construction of an ultra-modern Head Office Complex for the Assemblies of God, Ghana, initiated the Pastors Welfare Policies and Systems, revitalized Prime Insurance Company for it to be among the leading insurance companies in Ghana amongst other developmental projects for the church.

For national duties, he served as the Board Chairman of the National Commission on Small Arms and Light Weapons and was a member of the National Board of Trustees for the National Cathedral. Additionally, he was a Member of the Eminent Advisory Committee of the Electoral Commission.

Paul, has equally been influential within the corporate world by serving on over twenty (20) corporate boards including financial institutions. Paul presently is the Board Chairman of eTranzact Ghana Limited, the Board Chairman of Kwamanman Rural Bank PLC, the Council Chair of Thrivus University for Biomedical Science and Technology as well as the Council Chair of Christian Council University. Also, he is a Board Member of the Henry Djaba Memorial Foundation to name but a few.

Currently, he is the Founder and President of Frimpong-Manso Institute, a Christian think-tank organization seeking to transform persons and societies through apolitical, faith-based, factual and ethical intervention.

Paul is a Professor in Ministry and Theology from the Global University Springfield-MO USA. He holds a PhD in Theology from the University of Wales (UK), an Honorary Doctorate from the Pan African Theological Seminary/Clergy Council, a Master of Arts (MA) from the University of Sheffield, a Cambridge Diploma of Religious Studies from University of Cambridge (UK) and many other qualifications.

He is married to Rev. Mrs. Gladys Frimpong-Manso, a seasoned ordained minister of the Assemblies of God, Ghana and they are blessed with four (4) adult children. Rev. Prof. Paul Frimpong-Manso has, and still travels extensively to preach, teach in Bible Colleges as well as to speak at conferences and seminars globally.