CLERGY REFLECTION: "They ate and were satisfied". Our Gospel reading this Sunday is of course one of the most well-known of Jesus' miracles: The Feeding of the Five Thousand. Not only is it a great wonder how so many were fed by so little, but it is also a great reminder to us all that the one thing that truly satisfies us is the bread of life, the Eucharist. We can surround ourselves with all sorts of beautiful things and eat sumptuous foods, and yes they do satisfy us, for a while. But soon the feeling wears off. Not so with the Eucharist, the source and summit of our faith which never stops giving; which truly satisfies us in uniting us with Christ through His Body and Blood, and in union with him to be His true and faithful disciples. So as we hear the account of the Feeding of the Five Thousand in today's Gospel, let us give thanks for the gift of the Eucharist and pray for vocations to the priesthood that we may continue to receive the only food that truly satisfies.
